Dear Sirs:-

I am sending you by express a collection of coins I made while abroad some thirty years ago so that you may pick out any that will fill gaps in the collection and dispose of the duplicates. When I was active in New York I was a member of the Society. I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "William Procter", with a long, sweeping horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Mr. William Proctor,
Bar Harbor, Me.

Dear Sir:

During a week's absence, your most assuredly generous gift came to this Museum. Hence my delay in acknowledging it. I have but glanced through them, but see that there will be many additions to our cabinet, especially in the French and German series, and in many instances improvement in condition.

Thanking you for your kind thought in remembering us,
I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Curator

Official acknowledgment will be sent later.
